

Charlotte shared with us a recount of an important time in her life. What can you remember about her story? Tick the correct answers.

1. In the video what did Charlotte say was one of the things she liked the most about herself when she was growing up?
 - Her gorgeous, curly black hair.
 - Her beautiful, dark, smooth skin.
 - Her sense of humour.
 - Her friendly personality.

2. What was the climax or twist in the story Charlotte recounted?
 - Charlotte got lost on a train ride home from school.
 - Someone stole Charlotte's school hat.
 - Charlotte's friend teased her about her pimples/acne.
 - Charlotte was bullied by many people about her hair.

3. When and where did that happen?
 - Walking to the train.
 - One day before school.
 - On the train home from school.

4. What did Charlotte feel after this dramatic climax? (There 4 correct answers.)
 - Embarrassed.
 - Sad.
 - Joyful.
 - Hurt.
 - Angry.

5. What did Charlotte learn about herself?
 - Catching the train home can be dangerous.
 - Boys always tease girls.
 - Our outside beauty is only one small part of who we are.
 - Having pimples/acne is something to be ashamed of.

6. Charlotte was faced with a challenge in her story. Tell us about a challenge in your life that you have overcome. Has there ever been something about yourself that you didn't like or that you wish was different?

7. In the story, we hear that words can be used to build up or tear down a person. Tell us about a time when someone used their words to make you feel good?

8. We are so much more than how we look or what people say about us. List five strengths you have or things you like about yourself.

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.