

It's important to recognise what things you might see online are inappropriate.

1. What sort of things are inappropriate images or video?
(Tick all the options that are inappropriate. There are 4 correct answers).
  - A family photo on a family member's phone.
  - Someone doing something very violent in a video.
  - A video of a naked body doing something you have never seen before.
  - A picture of a person's private parts.
  - A movie trailer for an upcoming G-rated movie.
  - A picture of someone you know that was taken without their consent/permission.
2. Describe the kinds of places where you might encounter inappropriate images (e.g. on an advertising billboard, on a phone).
