

Reflecting on what you know about consent and the safety rules that apply to our private parts, which of the following statements are true?

Tick all the correct answers. (There are 3 correct answers.)

- Your mouth is for eating food, talking and kissing people you love.
- It's ok that Jack doesn't like kissing people and prefers to give a hug instead.
- If it's someone I know and like, it's okay for them to touch or see my private parts or to show me theirs.
- We should keep secrets about our bodies or private parts.
- It's important to have rules about touching and to talk to trusted adults if you need help.