

The people who makes up a person's family is different from family to family. Each family is unique and special. We'd love to know a little more about who is in your family.

What makes your family different, unique and special?

Draw a picture of you and write some information about each person and your relationship with them.